

Star 41

Civil War Veteran

My great grandfather Garrett Minton enlisted in Company D of the 10th Regiment NJ Volunteers in 1861. In 1864 he re-enlisted and was severely wounded at the battle of the Wilderness.

He was then sent to a hospital in Newark NJ for his injuries.

Garrett recovered and returned to his unit and was at the surrender at Appomattox in 1865.

He returned home to Englishtown, NJ and died on April 27, 1926.

Submitted by his great grandson Richard W. Finn... April 27, 2017.
